

USA TODAY Names Woodloch Pines the Number One Family Resort in the United States

Woodloch Pines, an all-inclusive family resort located in Pennsylvania's Pocono Mountains, has been selected by USA TODAY's 10Best Awards as the number one family resort in the United States

Hawley, PA, August 15, 2019 - Woodloch Pines, an all-inclusive family resort located in Pennsylvania's Pocono Mountains, has been selected by USA TODAY as the number one family resort in the United States in their 10Best Readers' Choice Awards. Woodloch Pines world-renowned sister property, The Lodge at Woodloch: A Destination Spa, claimed the honor of the number two best all-inclusive resort in the United States.

Nominees are chosen by a panel of travel experts, a well-traveled and well-educated group who are not only experts in their fields and their cities but also discriminating in their tastes. These include a combination of editors from USA TODAY, editors from 10Best.com, and other professional contributors.

"We are thrilled to be chosen as the number one family resort and number two all-inclusive resort by USA TODAY. It is humbling to see our resort, which has been in our family for over 60 years, ranked among so many amazing properties and national brands," said John Kiesendahl, CEO and President of Woodloch. "This could not have been accomplished without the hard work and sincere hospitality of our staff members, as well as our loyal and passionate guests who want to share their experiences with the world. We thank you for standing by us all these years," he continued.
